Online Course:
URBAN DESIGN SEMINAR

INSTRUCTOR
Daniel Piatkowski, PhD
dpiatkowski2@unl.edu

Course Description:

This course is an introduction to the history and practice of urban design. The course focuses on the overlapping fields of design, policy, and planning, as well as the myriad impacts of urban design on diverse communities. The course is interdisciplinary and students from any academic background are welcome. There are no prerequisites and students are not required to have any formal training in design.

The course is completely online and presence on the UNL campus is not required.

UNIVERSITY OF Nebraska
Lincoln