

- Students must complete 28 semester hours or be classified as a sophomore before applying for admission to the construction management degree program.
- CM students must pass all courses offered within the College of Engineering and all math and science courses with a "C" or higher.
- All seniors are required to take a program exit examination
- Engineering Students on the Lincoln campus are required to take Engineering Seminar ENGR 20 for no credit.

Notes:
 [1] English 150 accepted as substitute
 [2] Science Elective: PHYS 151 & 153 or 211 & 221
 [3] Choose one course each from ACE outcomes 5, 7, and 9 elective courses
 [4] Sophomore standing is listed as a prerequisite
 [5] Prerequisites are either ARCH 232 or Admission to Construction Management Degree Program

