In favor of the Board of Regents of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln (UNL).

Parent/Guardian wishes Minor to participate in the University of Nebraska-Lincoln Engineering Readiness Academy provided by the College of Engineering (Scott Campus). In consideration for the privilege of Minor's participation in this activity, Guardian agrees to the following clauses:

- (1) Guardian has hereby been made aware that the Minor's attendance at the Engineering Readiness Academy has the following non-exhaustive list of particular risks: abrasions, dislocations, fractures, concussions, strains, contusions, blisters, and eye strain.
- (2) Guardian, with the intention of binding himself/herself and participant and their respective heirs, legal representatives, and assigns, assumes all risks in connection with this College of Engineering event and hereby releases all instructors, agents, volunteers, operators, and officials of UNL from liability for any injury or damage which may befall the Minor while attending this College of Engineering event, and agrees to save and hold harmless UNL and UNL's heirs, legal representatives, successors and assigns against loss from any further claims, demands or actions that may subsequently be brought by the Minor or by any person or persons arising out the Minor attending this College of Engineering event.
- (3) In case of medical emergency, Guardian authorizes UNL or its representatives to take all reasonable steps to secure the health and safety of Minor, including, but not limited to x-ray examinations, anesthetic, medical or surgical diagnosis or treatment, and/or hospital care.
- (4) As Guardian, I have read and support the Engineering Readiness Academy Student Code of Conduct (page 2).

Guardian certifies that he/she is of lawful age and legally competent to sign this affirmation and release and that he/she understands that the terms contained herein and contractual are not mere recitals.

GENERAL BEHAVIORAL EXPECTATIONS

While participating in the University of Nebraska-Lincoln College of Engineering Readiness Academy, you not only represent yourself but also your school and community. There are certain behavioral expectations that must be observed by all participants to maintain participation in the program.

All participants of the Engineering Readiness Academy are prohibited from involvement in unsafe, irresponsible, and/or illegal conduct. In addition, you must abide by the following rules and regulations:

1. I am committed to fully participate in all activities of the Engineering Readiness Academy.
2. I promise that my attitude, conduct and appearance will reflect credit on my school and community.
3. I will not have in my possession or use drugs, alcohol or tobacco at any time during the program. I understand that university facilities are smoke free.

The leaders/staff of the Engineering Readiness Academy reserve the right to immediately dismiss from the program anyone who is found to have violated these behavioral expectations. Students dismissed from the program will be sent home without a refund of the program fee. Parent(s)/guardian(s) will be immediately notified of the student's termination.

All participants will follow all safety procedures and guidelines as instructed by the NLOM staff. Participating in this program may involve bending, twisting, lifting, running, jumping, climbing, increased heart or breath rates and physical contact with others. Unexpected strains or jolts to your body can occur.

I understand that this activity could cause serious illness and/or injury, and I assume all risks for any such illness and/or injury. I realize that the Challenge Course/Climbing program might jeopardize my health if I have a history of heart problems or high blood pressure, am pregnant, recovering from broken bones, dislocated joints, sprains, strains, back or neck injuries, have an enlarged organ, am a transplant recipient, or have Down Syndrome. Participants with any of these or other physical concerns should talk with the NLOM staff prior to the start of the Co-Op event.

In the event of illness or injury, I do hereby consent to whatever medical treatment and hospital care may be considered necessary in the best judgment of the attending physician, surgeon, or dentist performed under the supervision of a member of the medical staff of the hospital or facility furnishing medical or dental services.

As a condition of my participation in this activity, I agree to waive all claims against Nebraska Lutheran Outdoor Ministries and to hold its employees harmless from any and all liability or claims because of any death, bodily injury, personal injury, or illness that may arise out of or in any way be connected with the above-described activity. This waiver shall not apply to any occurrence that may arise solely out of the negligence of NLOM, its employees or agents.

I am aware that I might be photographed and/or videotaped during my participation, and authorize such photographs and/or videotapes to be used by NLOM in training or promotional materials at any point in the future. I understand that my name will not be used and/or published in any way, and that I will not receive compensation for the use of such photographs and/or videotapes.

By signing below I am agreeing that I have carefully read and agree to all of the sections above.
